At the conclusion of the reading:

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God

Psalms 107:1-9, 43

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, *

and his mercy endures for ever.

*Let all those whom the LORD has redeemed proclaim  that he redeemed them from the hand of the foe.

*He gathered them out of the lands; **

from the east and from the west,

from the north and from the south.

*Some wandered in desert wastes; **

they found no way to a city where they might dwell.

*They were hungry and thirsty; **

their spirits languished within them.

*Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, **

and he delivered them from their distress.

*He put their feet on a straight path **

to go to a city where they might dwell.

*Let them give thanks to the LORD for his mercy *
and the wonders he does for his children.*

*For he satisfies the thirsty *
and fills the hungry with good things.*

*Whoever is wise will ponder these things, *
and consider well the mercies of the LORD.*

*The Nicene Creed

from Book of Common Prayer 1979

We believe in one God,

*the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.*

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

*the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,*

*begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.*

Through him all things were made.

*For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.*

*For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.*

*He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.*

*We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

Prayers of the People

After each petition ends in "Lord, in your mercy", all respond with "hear our prayer."

Prayer of Confession (all kneel or bow as able)

Most merciful God,
*we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.*

The priest then offers the absolution.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you
And also with you

Please exchange a "no contact" sign of peace with those around you. Examples include a wave or a bow.

*The Eucharist

The Lord be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

It is right to give him thanks and praise

In this portion of the prayer, the Celebrant gives thanks to God the Father, for God’s work in creation and revelation to God’s people. Then follows the Sanctus, an angelic song of praise to God:

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

S-129 (Grace Church)

S-130 (St. Martin’s)

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

All continue to stand or kneel. The Celebrant now offers praise to God for God’s work of salvation in the world through Jesus Christ. This act of praise recalls the events of Jesus’ final meal with his disciples. It was at this meal where Jesus took the bread and the cup, blessed them as his Body and Blood, and gave them to his disciples. Then follows:

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant then calls for the Holy Spirit to be sent upon the gifts so “they may be Body and Blood of Christ,” upon us gathered here, and upon the whole earth to bring all things into God’s new creation . The Eucharistic prayer then concludes with the final doxology, all responding with AMEN.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the bread, followed by a period of silence. Then, the following is said

Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

When receiving, hold out your hands flat to allow the priest will then “drop” the bread in a way that minimizes skin contact. At this time, only the bread will be offered. If you do not wish to receive, simply cross your arms and the priest will offer a blessing. Additionally, you may pray the Prayer for Spiritual Communion found below:

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life, until by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.
