First Reading

Job 23:1-9, 16-17

At the conclusion of the reading:

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God’s people.

Thanks be to God

Psalm 22:1-15

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? *

and are so far from my cry

and from the words of my distress?

*O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; **

by night as well, but I find no rest.

*Yet you are the Holy One, **

enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

*Our forefathers put their trust in you; **

they trusted, and you delivered them.

*They cried out to you and were delivered; **

they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

*But as for me, I am a worm and no man, **

scorned by all and despised by the people.

*All who see me laugh me to scorn; **

they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,

*"He trusted in the LORD; let him deliver him; **

let him rescue him, if he delights in him."

*Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, **

and kept me safe upon my mother's breast.

*I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; **

you were my God when I was still in my mother's womb.

*Be not far from me, for trouble is near, **
and there is none to help.

*Many young bulls encircle me; **
strong bulls of Bashan surround me.

*They open wide their jaws at me, **
like a ravening and a roaring lion.

I am poured out like water;
*all my bones are out of joint; **
my heart within my breast is melting wax.

My mouth is dried out like a pot-sherd;
*my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; **
and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

The Sermon

The Rev. Kyle Cuperwich

*The Nicene Creed

from Book of Common Prayer 1979

We believe in one God,

the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,

the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven:

*by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.
We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.*

Prayers of the People

After each petition ends in “Lord, in your mercy”, all respond with “hear our prayer.”

Prayer of Confession (all kneel or bow as able)

Most merciful God,
*we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.*

The priest then offers the absolution.

The Peace

The peace of the Lord be always with you
And also with you

Please exchange a “no contact” sign of peace with those around you. Examples include a wave or a bow.

Blessed be God forever.

The Eucharist

The Lord be with you

And also with you

Lift up your hearts

We lift them up to the Lord

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

It is right to give him thanks and praise

In this portion of the prayer, the Celebrant gives thanks to God the Father, for God’s work in creation and revelation to God’s people. Then follows the Sanctus, an angelic song of praise to God:

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.

S-129 (Grace Church)

S-130 (St. Martin’s)

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

All continue to stand or kneel. The Celebrant now offers praise to God for God’s work of salvation in the world through Jesus Christ. This act of praise recalls the events of Jesus’ final meal with his disciples. It was at this meal where Jesus took the bread and the cup, blessed them as his Body and Blood, and gave them to his disciples. Then follows:

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Celebrant then calls for the Holy Spirit to be sent upon the gifts so “they may be Body and Blood of Christ,” upon us gathered here, and upon the whole earth to bring all things into God’s new creation . The Eucharistic prayer then concludes with the final doxology, all responding with AMEN.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy Name,

thy kingdom come,

thy will be done,

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

and the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Celebrant breaks the bread, followed by a period of silence. Then, the following is said

Alleluia! Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia!

The Invitation

The Gifts of God for the People of God.

When receiving, hold out your hands flat to allow the priest will then "drop" the bread in a way that minimizes skin contact. At this time, only the bread will be offered. If you do not wish to receive, simply cross your arms and the priest will offer a blessing. Additionally, you may pray the Prayer for Spiritual Communion found below:

Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament and, since I cannot at this time receive communion, I pray you to come into my heart. I unite myself with you and embrace you with all my heart, my soul, and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you; let me serve you in this life, until by your grace, I come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

(From Saint Augustine's Prayer Book, rev 2014., based on a prayer by St. Alphonsus de Liguori)

Communion Anthem (St. Martin's)

"Alleluia, sing to Jesus"

Post-Communion Prayer

Eternal God, heavenly Father,

you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food

in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood.

Send us now into the world in peace,

and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you

*with gladness and singleness of heart;
through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Blessing

The priest offers a blessing.

Recessional Hymn

“All hail the power of Jesus’ name (vv. 1-3, 6)”

“O day of God, draw nigh”

Hymnal 450 (Grace Church)
